

Interpretation and Translation

Personal. Professional. Universal.

Language barriers in a workers' compensation claim can impede quality medical care and early return to work. Miscommunication and misunderstanding can also extend the injury duration and increase claim costs.

We provide qualified and certified foreign language interpreters and translators to optimize communication for medical and legal appointments and documents. Our referral process is fast, simple and exempt from coordination fees.

Languages include, but are not limited to:

- American Sign Language (ASL)
- Cantonese
- Farsi
- French
- German
- Japanese
- Mandarin
- Russian
- Spanish
- Vietnamese
